CIVIL EMPLOYEES IN THE DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE
JANUARY 15, 1919.

LETTER

FROM

THE SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE,

TRANSMITTING,

IN RESPONSE TO A SENATE RESOLUTION OF DECEMBER 15 (CALENDAR DAY, DECEMBER 23), 1918, A REPORT OF THE NUMBER OF CIVIL EMPLOYEES IN THE DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE ON JANUARY 15, 1919, AND THE NUMBER DISCHARGED DURING THE PRECEDING TWO WEEKS.

January 27, 1919.—Ordered to lie on the table and to be printed.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE,
Washington, January 15, 1919.

SIR: Complying with Senate resolution of December 15 (Calendar day, December 23), 1918, which directs the heads of the executive departments "to report to the Senate beginning January first, nineteen hundred and nineteen, and every two weeks thereafter during the present session of Congress, the number of civil employees in their respective departments and the number discharged during the previous two weeks," I have the honor to advise you that, on January 1, 1919, there were 5,218 employees in the Department of Agriculture in the District of Columbia. The number of persons appointed to this department in Washington during the period January 2 to 15, inclusive, was 115, and the number separated during the same period was 111. The number of employees in the Department of Agriculture in the District of Columbia on January 15, 1919, was 5,222.

Respectfully,

D. F. HOUSTON, Secretary.

The PRESIDENT OF THE SENATE.
